Save the Dates for SECOND SUNDAY BREAKFAST!!!

Oct 13, Nov 10, & Dec 8 9am–10am

The St. Thomas More Council of the Knights of Columbus invite you to the "Second Sunday Breakfast" starting in October! The breakfast cost $5 per person with children 10-years and under eating FREE! From 9am-10am, families walking out of the 8am can walk right into the new St. Jude Celebration Hall, as well as the families planning on attending the 10:30am Mass can come early and enjoy a wonderful meal and fellowship. The last breakfast will be served at 10am so as to give those receiving the Holy Eucharist at 11am a full hour to abstain from food and drink.

The Martyrs of La Florida

"Florida which has been bedewed in the East and in the West, in the North and in the South with the purest blood of the Martyrs!" —Bishop Augustin Verot, Florida’s first resident bishop, August 1858

There are 54 martyrdom events under investigation. Some events have one martyr and some have many. All were killed in the evangelization of the region of our nation’s land known as la Florida. It is a seamless story that began in 1549 with the courageous landing of the Dominicans in Tampa Bay — and ended in 1761 in Pensacola as three Apalachee Indians were killed trying to protect the Eucharist.

Dr. Mary Soha has been invited to speak about these Martyrs at St. Anastasia on Wednesday, October 16, 2019 at 6:00pm. She is a vice-postulator for the canonization of the Martyrs of LaFlorida, and has participated in the canonization process for Jacinta and Francisco, the children of Fatima. She believes the lives of the Martyrs of LaFlorida are one of the most profound defenses of the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in our country’s history and is honored to be able to help share their stories.

For more information, please contact Denise Pressley in the parish office. RSVP is welcomed, but not necessary. We only ask for RSVP’s to ensure we have enough materials.

Eucharistic Adoration

"From the Eucharist comes strength to live the Christian life and zeal to share that life with others."

—St. Pope John Paul II

5400 Unknown Souls Lost To Abortion+

Let Us Pray:

Lord Jesus, when you were on earth, they brought the sick to you and you healed them all. Today I ask you to bless all those in sickness, in weakness and in pain.

As I ask your help for our brothers and sisters who are ill, I ask you to help us to be healing people in our time and place. May your love touch others through us, and may I help all people to live in peace.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
Don’t forget to join us in St. Jude Celebration Hall after each Mass this weekend for the 20th anniversary of the blessing of our beautiful church!

Mark his words
Padre Pio was a popular but controversial figure during his lifetime and has remained so since his death in 1968. He is said to have exhibited signs of the stigmata (visible wounds on his hands echoing Jesus’ wounds on the cross). Some believed they were real, others were skeptical, including several popes who isolated him and had medical examiners weigh in. Whatever the case, his advice for living a faithful life rings true: “living humbly, being disinterested, prudent, just, patient, kind, chaste, meek, diligent, carrying out one’s duties for no other reason than that of pleasing God, and receiving from Him alone the reward one deserves.” Let that advice be the mark of your life.

Gracious God,
You have gathered us together as a parish to be Your visible light in the world.

It is here that we unite to worship You, deepen our faith and make disciples of all nations.

Holy Spirit, help us to work together to make our parish truly an amazing example in word and deed; believing that You will guide our efforts toward an abundance of grace and love.

We pray this in Your name and for Your glory. Amen.

Liturgical Commen

A major theme in the Gospel of Luke is the importance of the care of the poor in the life of discipleship. In the parable found in today’s Gospel, Jesus contrasts the life of a rich man and the poor man, Lazarus, who lives in the shadow of the rich man and his wealth. Both die. Lazarus finds himself in heaven; the rich man in the netherworld. The rich man asks for assistance from Lazarus in his torment. But Abraham reminds the rich man of the good things he had in his life and describes the current situation as a reversal of fortunes. The rich man then asks that Lazarus be sent to warn his family, but this is denied with the reminder that Moses and the prophets have warned of judgment for those who neglect the care of the poor.

In the context of Luke's Gospel, this parable, delivered in the presence of a crowd of listeners, is part of Jesus' response to some Pharisees. These Pharisees are described in Luke's Gospel as “loving money.” (Note: The Pharisees were followers of a sect of Judaism active before, during, and after Jesus' lifetime. They taught an oral interpretation of the Law of Moses as the basis for popular Jewish piety. They put less emphasis on Temple worship and more on applying the law to everyday life. Though they are often portrayed negatively in the Gospels, they shared many of Jesus' and the early Church's concerns about the law.) Jesus observed that the actions of some Pharisees betrayed misplaced priorities: they spoke one way, but acted in another. The story of the rich man and Lazarus demonstrates the importance of the care of the poor and is a reminder to those who would follow Jesus of the unimportance of wealth in the eyes of God.

Join us under the Church Portico with your four-legged family member for a pet blessing

by Deacon George!
Did you ever ask yourself the following question: Where does my offertory and tithing go each month?

To better help understand where that $10, $20, or $50 bill goes each week that you donate to St. Anastasia Catholic Church, I thought it might be helpful include a short paragraph each month to show you what we as a Parish are doing with your hard-earned money. This month's topic: the Needy Fund.

Multiple times each week I receive phone calls or walk-in visitors asking for financial assistance. It ranges from gas in their cars, a Publix giftcard, a couple hundred dollars to get their lights or water turned back on, deposits for a homeless family to get into an apartment or trailer, medical bills, you name it, we are asked.

There are enough stories to fill a large book, but the point is, where do we get the money to help these parishioners and non-parishioners alike? The answer is offertory. We use offertory money to help people who have found themselves in emergency situations. When I meet with the applicant, I explain to them, if I help them today, we will not be able to help them again for 12 months. This allows us to help more people with the funds we have. The applicant is also informed that we require their driver’s license, and make a photocopy, because St. John's County Sheriff's Office will not allow us to assist those with a warrant out for arrest.

Most of the time the person we are helping is brought to tears in gratitude for "my" generosity. I am quick to say, "No, sir (or ma'am) it is not me. It is our parish. Our parishioners are very generous and without their donations, I could not help you today." When they ask if they can repay the money, I always say, "No, but you can pray for our parishioners' health and well-being."

Whether or not we were able to financially help the person who came in, I do always pray with each person before they leave our church campus. It pains me to have to say no to people, especially when there are children involved, but sometimes their needs are greater than the funds we have available. I tell them that we cannot help all the people all of the time, but I can help some of the people, and that is what God calls us to do as Catholics.

God bless you for your generosity to the offertory collection and for tithing.

The Power of Family Rituals
Rituals are powerful; they help us see what we otherwise might forget to look for. The same is true at home. Daily rituals and family traditions serve to show us and our children who we are and what matters to us. Here are some good opportunities to introduce rituals into your family life.

Bedtime
Bedtime rituals can be a challenge at the end of a long day, but children often need help falling asleep as nighttime fears arise. Take this opportunity to introduce bedtime prayers to your children and to help them develop trust in God as our protector and provider. See this time spent as an investment in your child’s spiritual and emotional wellness. As your children grow, don’t abandon the bedtime ritual, but adapt it to suit their needs.

Birthdays and Baptismal Days
Birthday celebrations are great ways to emphasize that your children are unique and loved. Recognizing, in some significant way, your children’s baptismal day is a great way to celebrate their relationship with God. A simple way to celebrate a baptismal anniversary is to light a candle, explain why you gave your child his or her name, and then spend a moment talking about the goodness you see in that child. In this way you will nurture the natural spirituality of your children and demonstrate that there is more to them than they probably know.

Every Day
Some of the best family fun can be had by developing little rituals that are unique to your lives together. There’s many simple practices that celebrate the sacred. Perhaps every Friday night your family eats pizza, piles on the couch together, and watches a movie. Or perhaps New Year’s Day is your family’s day to go on a long hike in the woods. Value these rituals and know that they are anchors for your kids in a turbulent world.

Meals
Eating a family meal on a regular basis is a profound ritual. Begin the meal with prayer. Make time for everyone to share something about their day. Try fun meal-time questions like those in The Meal Box, they will encourage conversation, laughter, and sharing. Above all, make the table a welcoming, come-as-you-are place. Welcome friends, neighbors, and those in need to your table as well. Jesus did some of his best teaching from the dinner table. You can too, just by passing the potatoes.

What to Do When a Friend is Considering Abortion

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/l-o-v-e.

When a woman is facing a difficult pregnancy, the reaction of the first person she tells tends to set the tone for her decision-making. How do we respond in a loving way that is life-affirming for both her and her baby? First, prioritize listening over speaking. Ask her about her feelings, thoughts, values, beliefs, and wants. When her story is fully shared, it is your turn to provide factual information, in a loving and caring way. Encourage her.

Help her set goals that extend beyond her due date to help her see life beyond her pregnancy. Reassure her that she is not alone, and provide practical support. Pray with her, offering Christ’s love at a crucial life-saving and life-defining moment.

Reassure her that she is not alone.

TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY
October 1, 8, 15, 22, 29
In the Sunday readings we hear the Word of God every week and this Word leads us to the table where we receive the Body of Christ. That Word takes root in us and forms our lives far better when we spend time with it—listening, pondering, and praying. Your facilitator, Joe Riffe, invites you to join him to study the scripture for the upcoming Sunday and reflect on the meaning of the scripture as it relates to your life. The resource for this study, At Home with the Word 2019, will be available at the first session.

Book Cost: $10.00—Supply fee: $10.00
Questions? Contact Denise Pressley at the Parish Office. We look forward to seeing you there.

“Rebuilding” coming soon to St. Anastasia!

“Rebuilding When Your Relationship Ends,” workshop created by Dr. Bruce Fisher. The end of a love relationship can be a life-shattering experience. It might have been sudden or years in the making. It's often the result of divorce but it might have been a breakup of a serious relationship or the death of your loved one. The circumstances vary, but one thing remains constant — your need to heal your heart, rebuild your trust, and get on with the rest of your life. For more information contact Denise Pressley in the parish office.

Come Follow Me...
Everyone has a vocation. What’s yours?
St. Anastasia Parish will be hosting a “Vocations Discernment Evening” with Father Tim, Father Steven Zehler and Father Joseph Kuhlman on Tuesday, October 15 5:30pm—7:45pm.

This gathering will be an opportunity for Evening Prayer, a meal and discussion with other men discerning their vocation. All single men in the 9th grade+ that are interested in discerning the priesthood are invited to come.

To RSVP or for more information, contact Denise Pressley at dre@saccfl.org or 471-5364.

PREPARATION FOR TOTAL CONSECRATION
Dates: Oct. 3, 10
Time: 6:30pm—8:00pm
Place: St. Jude Celebration Hall
Mass For Consecration: October 12, 2019 at 4:00pm
For more information email: Diane Buckley at buckleydiane@gmail.com or contact Denise Pressley in the Parish Office

Do you know someone interested in learning about the Catholic faith? Do you have a friend or family member who has yet to complete his or her sacraments of Initiation—(Baptism, Eucharist and/or Confirmation) and has shown some interest? There will be an open Inquiry September 30, 2019 at 6:00pm in the St. Enda of Aran Formation Center.
