July 2020

Dear Friends in Christ,

Last May, Pope Francis issued Vos estis lux mundi (“You are the light of the world”), a motu proprio, following the Meeting on the Protection of Minors in the Church in February 2019. One integral piece of Vos estis lux mundi (VELM) is the requirement that all dioceses must provide a system to report and deal with allegations of abuse by cardinals, bishops, patriarchs, and heads of religious institutes, along with ensuring that anyone who covers up or fails to adequately respond to allegations of abuse while in one of these positions is held accountable.

In the United States, the system is called the Catholic Bishop Abuse Reporting service (CBAR). The system is run by a third-party, Convercent, Inc., and is operational in our diocese. Convercent, Inc. is a commercial vendor of ethics reporting services and has no authority within the Catholic Church. You can reach the hotline at reportbishopabuse.org or at 800-276-1562.

Any individual can report an allegation of abuse by a U.S. Catholic Bishop or report a person who, in the exercise of their office, intentionally interfered with a civil or Church investigation into allegations of sexual abuse committed by another cleric or member of a religious order. CBAR is secure and confidential. The privacy of individuals making a report will be respected, and identities will not be shared outside of the appropriate civil and Church authorities who need to act upon the report. The ability to make an anonymous report is also available. Once a report is filed, the filer is given an access number and password that allows them to follow-up on their report.

VELM is a significant step forward for the global Church in continuing our commitment to protect God’s children from the sin of sexual abuse. Many of the directives outlined in the document have been in place in the United States for almost two decades, upon the adoption of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People. It affirms these practices already in place:

- A commitment to care for the spiritual and emotional wellbeing of survivors and their families
- The duty to comply with civil law and the appropriate civil authorities
- The guarantee of a prompt investigation
- The assurance that laity will be involved

Survivors have courageously come forward and reported what happened to them. Their reports can lead to justice, a safer environment and help those who need healing. CBAR adds new ways to protect our young people and bring justice to those who committed evil acts. The Church stands ready to welcome and adopt these improved measures. More information can be found on the diocesan website at https://bit.ly/GRdioceseReportAbuse

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend David J. Walkowiak

Study Sacred Scripture...
Understand the significance of God’s Word in your life!

CBSM will have two upcoming Information Nights, held at 7pm on July 15th and August 12th. Please check cbsmich.org/infonights for location and attendance information. You can also contact Sean Nolan or Mark Postma for more information at seannolan@cbsmich.org.

Today, when few things remain certain in which to place our trust, one thing stands firm – the Word of God. Through the Scriptures, the Father who is in Heaven meets us with great love, invites us to get to know Him, and gives us hope for the future. He is constant. He is reliable. And He wants to be our light in the darkness.

THIS FALL, you’re invited to prayerfully encounter the Word of God anew with a Catholic Biblical School of Michigan (CBSM) class. Since 2010, CBSM has been helping Catholics study Scripture so that they can encounter Jesus Christ, grow as disciples, and share the Good News, reaching thousands in the Archdiocese of Detroit, Dioceses of Lansing, Grand Rapids, and Kalamazoo. Whether you’re a long-time students of Scriptures or a beginner, a CBSM class is a place to discover the timeliness of God’s Word and transform our lives as disciples of Jesus in His Church.

Powerful Curriculum
CBSM offers the unique opportunity for a Catholic study of the entire Bible led by an expert live instructor. Through weekly lectures and written feedback, instructors engage and guide participants along the pathway of discipleship. During the first year, we trace the story of God’s People through the historical books of the Old Testament, discovering that this is our story, our family, and the basis for Jesus’ earthly ministry. Prayer, catechesis, and applications to the life of a disciple are revealed from Scripture, so that God can transform our lives.

Inspired Instructors
Jesus invested deeply in the Twelve, spending three years explaining Israel’s Scriptures and proclaiming God’s Kingdom to them in a direct, person-to-person way. Our dynamic, faith-filled instructors have a Master’s degree or higher and have been carefully chosen in a hiring process overseen by Dr. Peter Williamson, professor of Sacred Scripture at Sacred Heart Major Seminary (Detroit) and co-editor of the Catholic Commentary on Sacred Scripture.

Community and Connection
Each class includes guided group discussion and lecture. Our participants say that “CBSM has catapulted me into being a joyful missionary disciple. I am forever changed and will be the same again. Praise God!”
