Discipleship is not something that we take upon ourselves. We are called to it. Some people are very conscious of this call. They are aware of it in their aspirations and dreams; they recognize it in the events of their lives. They hear the call as clearly as Simon, Andrew, James, and John heard the voice of Jesus. For others, the call to discipleship is not so clear. They may experience an undefined restlessness, a dissatisfaction with their lives. People can respond to the call in one of two ways. They can consider the mere suggestion of discipleship an intrusion into their plans, or they can drop what they are doing, leave their former concerns behind, and follow Jesus.

There is a misunderstanding about being called and leaving everything behind. Although the gospel says that the four men left their occupation of fishing in order to follow Jesus, this kind of “leaving behind” was not, and still is not, required of all, for it is in the ordinary events of life that our salvation unfolds. For most people, this is precisely where they are to function as disciples. Still, disciples of Jesus are called to leave behind certain ways of living as they follow him. They are called away from lives of pettiness and division. They are called away from the kind of factionalism that seems to have threatened the unity of the Corinthian community. They are called away from narrow-mindedness and mean-spirited competition. It is much easier to leave nets than to leave the web of one’s prejudices.

Thank you to John Shrout who took the initiative and has been replacing the church chair back padding. We appreciate your dedication to our comfort level while at Mass! Thank you also to Charlie Hall and Bill Sauer for your diligence in replacing the burned out bulbs in the bulkhead/perimeter of the church and for cleaning the debris that was found up there. Our Mass experience will certainly be brighter!

Thank you for the generous response to the SVdP blanket Sunday Drive. As of January 19th 55 items (blankets/sheets) were donated. Your support for those people who need a helping hand is heartwarming. SVdP thanks you.

We would not expect a car, or a house heating/air conditioning system to run for years without any servicing, so why do we expect our marriage relationship to keep running smoothly without a little maintenance? The Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend gives married couples the tools to keep their relationship in top running condition. Future Marriage Encounter Weekends will be at Mount Saint Francis Centre for Spirituality, New Albany, from 14-16 February and from 14-16 August 2020, and at Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House, Indianapolis, from 24-26 April and from 6-8 November 2020. Visit www.wwme.org for further information.

Quote from a couple who made a Marriage Encounter Weekend after 18 years of marriage:

“We were blown out of the water after our Weekend. We didn’t fully appreciate that our Sacrament was a vocation to be cherished and nurtured.”
