Presentation of the Lord
February 2, 2020

Traditionally this is the fortieth day of Christmas. Though the Christmas season closed with the Epiphany, the Presentation brings us back to some of the Christmas themes. The feast is on the edge, a kind of hinge between the seasons of Christmas and Lent.

The temple is not merely a building where believers gather to worship God. It is sacred because it is the dwelling place of God on earth. Therefore, the coming of God to the temple was always a time of great anticipation and excitement. It promised blessing and rejoicing.

It took the eyes of the old man and the faith of an old woman to recognize that the Lord had indeed come into the temple. Rituals, it was the child who was redeemed. In fact, it is the world that will be redeemed by this Child. He is the light that shines in the darkness of the world; He will enlighten all people, Jew and Gentile alike. This feast shares the theme of universality so prominent on the feast of the Epiphany. The king of glory opens the portals for the entire universe to enter.

LENT

Did you know?
The annual observance of Lent is the special season for the ascent to the holy mountain of Easter

The disciplines of prayer, fasting and almsgiving that are a part of our Lenten journey help us to build our spiritual muscles to ascend the mountain to Easter.

Many of the Scripture readings throughout Lent speak of Jesus’ ascent. We too are called to go up the mountain this Lent and Holy Week.

Lent is a time of “bright sadness”. As we make the first step into bright sadness of Lent, we see-far-far away-the destination. It is the joy of Easter; it is the entrance into the glory of the Kingdom.

The liturgical environment during Lent does not permit to decorate the altar with flowers. Laetare Sunday is the exception.

The weeks of Lent, the altar is covered with a violet cloth, sometimes with silver and black hem. On the Fifth Sunday, the corpus is covered until the end of Good Friday.

The Art and Environment committee prepares the altar based on this.

Please remember Fr. John Beitans in your prayers as we continue to pray for his recovery.

Thank you to Mary Jane Biro and the Christian Service Commission members for providing the Senior Luncheons for us. The topics each month are interesting and informative, the lunches are delicious and the fellowship is invaluable. Thank you!

Help at SVdP Client Choice Pantry
Help those who struggle to have food by volunteering at the St Vincent DePaul Pantry at 3001 E. 30th St on Saturday morning, February 8th, starting between 7:30 - 8:00 AM.
Also, additional days to help are: Tuesday – 2/4 thru Friday – 2/7--8:00 AM-1:00 PM. Also Thursday 2/6 – 4:00 PM-8:00PM.

Do you ever run out of things to say during your prayer time? Or worse, do you ever get weary of saying the same things over and over? Why not just sit in silent adoration of the one who loves you more than you can imagine? What words can be better or more appropriate than that?
