I Am the New Year

I am the New Year.
I am an unspoiled page in your book of time.
I am your opportunity to practice what you have learned during the last twelve months about life.
All the good that you tried to do for others and didn’t achieve last year is mine to grant—providing you have fewer selfish and conflicting desires.
In me lies the potential of all that you have dreamed but didn’t dare to do, all that you hoped but did not perform,
all you prayed for but did not yet experience.
I am your opportunity to renew your allegiance to Christ who said, “Behold, I make all things new.” (Rv. 21:5)
I am the New Year.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Happy Feast of the Holy Family! As we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, we also celebrate the gift of the family. During this first Sunday after Christmas, we continue to celebrate the great birth of Christ. Today, we consider the amazing fact that Our Lord was born into a family, thus sanctifying the family. Families today are under tremendous stress and strain and many have experienced wounds and even brokenness. Whatever the state of our individual families, today we are reminded that all families need a savior and we celebrate Our Lord who has come to heal and protect family life.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church has a beautiful teaching on the family in God’s plan: “...Marriage and the family are ordered to the good of the spouses and to the procreation and education of children. The love of the spouses and the begetting of children create among members of the same family personal relationships and primordial responsibilities. A man and a woman united in marriage, together with their children, form a family. This institution is prior to any recognition by public authority, which has an obligation to recognize it. It should be considered the normal reference point by which the different forms of family relationship are to be evaluated. In creating man and woman, God instituted the human family and endowed it with its fundamental constitution. Its members are persons equal in dignity. For the common good of its members and of society, the family necessarily has manifold responsibilities, rights, and duties.” (CCC 2201-2203)

The Catechism also has a beautiful teaching on the Christian family: “The Christian family...can and should be called a domestic church.” It is a community of faith, hope, and charity; it assumes singular importance in the Church, as is evident in the New Testament. The Christian family is a communion of persons, a sign and image of the communion of the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit. In the procreation and education of children it reflects the Father’s work of creation. It is called to partake of the prayer and sacrifice of Christ. Daily prayer and the reading of the Word of God strengthen it in charity. The Christian family has an evangelizing and missionary task. The relationships within the family bring an affinity of feelings, affections and interests, arising above all from the members’ respect for one another. The family is a privileged community called to achieve a "sharing of thought and common deliberation by the spouses as well as their eager cooperation as parents in the children's upbringing." (CCC 2204-2206)

January 1st is a Holy Day of Obligation: I look forward to celebrating with you the great Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God on January 1st. Our Mass Schedule for the Holy Day is as follows: There will be a Vigil Mass at 4:00 p.m. on December 31. Masses on January 1 will be celebrated at 9:00 a.m., 10:30 a.m. and 12:15 p.m.

In Christ,

Fr. Wilson
CONNECTING THE WORD OF GOD TO OUR LIVES
Adapted from Faith-Sharing for Small Church Communities, (ed. Rev. Art Barancowski)

Reflecting on Today’s Gospel...

The Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph
December 29 (Cycle A)

First Reading: Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14
Second Reading: Colossians 3:12-21
Gospel: Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23

It must have been hard for Mary and Joseph to bring their child into the world in such a hurried and rustic environment. Barely had the child been born and visited by the Magi, when the Holy Family made a late-night escape through unfamiliar territory to an even more unfamiliar land they would call home until Herod died. At the news of Herod’s death, Joseph moved his young family back to Israel, but to a still-different place from where he called home. The movement of our lives may not be as dramatic and life-threatening as that of the Holy Family, but it surely helps us to know that the presence of God is the one continuous thread that binds us together no matter where we are.

Relate a time in your life when you experienced family unity in the face of danger, difficulty or crisis. Why do you think there was unity? Explain.

Our parish has many ministries that reach out to families within the community who are in need. How might you share the love of the Lord in the upcoming new year?

Preparing for Next Sunday...
The Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord
January 5 (Cycle A)

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6
Second Reading: Ephesians 3:2-3, 5-6
Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

Ephiphany means “manifestation,” a revelation of Jesus as truly God. Matthew and Luke show this child to be divine through stories of “signs and wonders” when Jesus was an infant. Matthew’s account of the visit of the three magi also shows the Church’s mission to the Gentiles. Matthew’s audience, largely Jewish Christians, was struggling to accept the presence of Gentile Christians in their community. Matthew shows in this Gospel passage that the salvation of Gentiles as well as Jews was indeed God’s plan.

Who or what event was the star that led you to a better understanding of Jesus?

The wise men were following the star and found Jesus. What can you do be the shining light so that you can bring others to find Jesus?
Welcome

The community at St. Paul Church extends a very special welcome to visitors and any returning Catholics who are worshipping with us during the Christmas season!

If you are looking for a parish home or if you have been away from the Church, we are glad you have joined us! We trust you will find our large and vibrant parish warm and welcoming. Please consider speaking with any of our clergy or contacting Pastoral Associate Susan Bellotti in our Parish Office (614-882-2109) if you would like information about our many ministries and programs or ways you can get involved and reconnect with your Catholic roots. We would be happy to assist you in “coming home.”

Appropriately, the Church places the Feast of the Holy Family on the Sunday following Christmas.

Let us pray for our families:
Father, help us to live as the Holy Family, united in respect and love. Teach us the sanctity of human love, show us the value of family life, and help us to live in peace. We are united with Jesus, Mary and Joseph because in your great love for us you sent your son to live in this world and to share our human experience. Help us to love each other as you love us, and to be more aware of those families in the world who struggle with poverty, war, and disease. Bring us all to the joy and peace of your eternal home.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please also join us in welcoming these new members to our St. Paul parish family:

Ladies: Give Yourself the Gift of Time with Jesus and Your Sisters in Christ!

ALL women of St. Paul are invited to attend a special evening of renewal on Sunday, January 12 at 7:00 p.m. in the Klinger Center. Come learn about the plans for the women of our parish to take a bus to the Ohio Expo Center so that together we can enjoy the February 15th Columbus Catholic Women’s Conference. Also plan to hear Father Wilson and others talk about the many parish ministries available in which you can strengthen your faith in the new year!

You're Invited!

FR. DONALD CALLOWAY, MIC
He is the vicar provincial and vocation director for the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy Province of the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception, as well as the author of a number of best selling Catholic books.

SR. MIRIAM JAMES HEIDLAND, S.O.L.T.
She is a sister with the Society of Our Lady of the Most Holy Trinity (S.O.L.T.) and author of Loved as I Am. When her life as a successful college athlete proved unfulfilling, she searched for something deeper and ended up falling in love with Jesus.

FR. UBALD RUGIRANGIRA with author Heidi Hess Saxton
He has been a Catholic priest in the Cyangugu diocese of southeastern Rwanda for 35 years. During the 1994 genocide, he lost more than 80 members of his family—including his mother—and more than 45,000 parishioners. Fr. Ubald focuses his ministry on healing and evangelization.

MICHELE FAEHNLE & EMILY JAMINET
They are award-winning, co-authors of Divine Mercy for Moms, The Friendship Project, Our Friend Faustina, and Pray Fully.
